ARRANGEMENTS IN THE JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

11) Mr. S.R. Ramaswamy Iyer, District Judge, Third Class Provisionally Permanent, and Second Class Acting, who is now in his period of extension of one year, is due to retire from service from the 19th October 1936 and in this connection, the High Court have recommended the following consequential arrangements:-

(1) Mr. T. Singaravelu Mudaliar, acting District and Sessions Judge, Third Class, Bangalore, to be District and Sessions Judge, Third Class Provisionally Permanent, and Second Class acting vice Mr. Ramaswamy Iyer, but to continue at Bangalore.

(2) Mr. S. Venkataranga Iyengar, Additional District and Sessions Judge, Bangalore, Third Class, to act as Third Class District and Sessions Judge, and posted to Shimoga in the place of Mr. Ramaswamy Iyer.

(3) Mr. C. Subrahmanya Aiyar, Subordinate Judge, doing duty as Under Secretary to Government, to act as Additional District and Sessions Judge, Third Class, Bangalore.

12) There are three persons above Mr. C. Subrahmanya Aiyar in the grade of Subordinate Judges, viz., Messrs. C. Narayanaswamy Naidu, H.K. Veerabasaviah and G. Paramasiviah. As regards Mr. Narayanaswami Naidu, it was ordered in 1935 that his case should not be considered again for appointment as a District Judge until he gives the most undoubted evidence of fitness for promotion by his conduct and good work as a Subordinate Judge. Mr. Veerabasaviah has been permanently debarred in 1934 from being appointed as District Judge.

13) As regards Mr. G. Paramasiviah, the High Court state that "it is not intended that he should be permanently kept out of promotion to District Judge, but it is thought proper that on this occasion, Mr. C. Subrahmanya Aiyar, who is nearly seven years older than Mr. Paramasiviah and is an experienced Officer, should be preferred to him." Mr. Subrahmanya Aiyar is now 49 years old and has put in nearly 20 years of service, while Mr. G. Paramasiviah is now 43 years of age, with a service of less than nine years.

14) I am of opinion that the recommendation of the Judges may be accepted, and the Second Member of Council also agrees. If the Dewan also approves, gracious sanction of His Highness is solicited to these proposals.

15) I may add that a Note was sent by me to the Dewan by the last Air Mail, which, if approved, might create a vacancy of District Judge, ~~which will be~~ available from the 1st January 1937, Mr. Paramasiviah's case may be considered in that connection.

The circumstances leading to his reversion in 1932 are set forth in Dewans Secret Note d 5.7.32 in Confl Correction put up. The previous history of this officer has been succinctly set forth in the Office notes of C.B. 14-9-32 put up in connection with a representation submitted by him in June 33. The High Court then said that they had not examined his subsequent work & it was premature to consider his promotion and Govt. thereupon requested the High Court to examine his work in his new charge & say if there was any improvement justifying consideration of his claim. In the letter now received from the H.C., it is said that his work at Shimoga ~~has~~ showed an improvement and the H.C. are in favour of trying him again as Sub Judge. ~~Hence~~ (The re-promotion has perhaps to be circulated to Council)

Dear Mr. Ramachandra Rao

I was not able to write to you last night as I intended, about proposals for filling up Mr. S. Ramaswamy Aiyar's place as Dt. Judge of Shimoga when he retires in October next. It was thought best that Shankaranarayana Rao V., who is a bar, should be appointed, & I recommend his appointment at first for 5 years.

We are all agreed in making the following recommendations :—

(1) Mr. T. Singaravelu Mudaliar to be provisionally promoted 3rd Asst Dt Judge & posting 2nd Asst

Dr Venkoba in place of Mr S. V. Ramaswami Ayyar who is remaining at Bangalore:

(2) Mr S. Venkatarangaya (appointed as 3rd puisne Dt. Judge of the Court of Chittoor;

(3) Mr C. Subrahmanya Ayyar to act as Addl Dt. Judge of Bangalore (on the 3rd grade).

I may add that it is not intended to appoint Mr S. Paramasivam, whose name & Mr C. Subrahmanya Ayyar, as Sundiate Judge, should be permanently retained on the Dt Judge; but it is thought that a vacancy & a vacancy in Mr C. Subrahmanya Ayyar, who is nearly 7 years older than Sundararaja Rao vacates that office, and I am to request that the Government will sanction that appointment under Section 7 (2) of the High Court Regulation and gazette it as made by the High Court with the sanction of the Government.

I am also to recommend that the following appointments and transfers may be made:

(1) Mr. S. Ramachandra Sastri, First Class Magistrate and Subordinate Judge of Chitaldrug, to be Subordinate Judge of Shimoga vice Mr. T.Shama Iyengar;

(2) Mr. C.B. Nagabhushana Rao, First Magistrate of Shimoga, to act as First Class Magistrate and Additional Subordinate Judge of Chitaldrug;

(3) Mr. C.V. Channappa, Second Magistrate of Shimoga, to act as First Magistrate of Shimoga;

(4) Mr. T. Gurunanjiah, Advocate, Tumkur, who acted recently as Munsiff-Magistrate at Hole-Narsipur, to act as Second Magistrate of Shimoga.

This is only the posting of an Acting II Grade Munsiff from the Second Magte's Court to the First Magte's Court. [So act as First Magte. is perhaps unnecessary] CJA

It will be convenient if all the officers are ordered to join their new appointments on 31st August.

Mr. Nagabhushana Rao acted as Subordinate Judge on four occasions, the last time being for a little more than a year, from July 1931 to July 1932, at Mysore. He was reverted as First Grade Munsiff in July 1932. From October 1932 to October 1935 he was First Magistrate at Tumkur, where his work was very slow but otherwise satisfactory. Since he has been at Shimoga he has succeeded in getting through his work more quickly, and the Judges after reconsidering his case are in favour of trying him again as Subordinate Judge in a fairly light Court instead of debarring him permanently from all hope of promotion. At Chitaldrug he will be able to hear civil appeals and also to try a few civil suits.

Yours sincerely,

Ramarao

B.T. Kesaviengar, Esq., B.A.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore.
